

Diagram 3 - Methane Monitoring Point 14 (MM14)

In using the above Hi Lo drilling technology one can see that this reduces the migration of methane gas from the methane monitoring outer markers. The historical information we acquired from this well was that the methane CH₄ content was 50%+ for a number of years prior to hi lo extraction wells being installed. Hi Lo technology is ideal to clear methane gas migration.